Included in your entry fee is:

- Participation in the group Tour,
- Kickoff buffet dinner in Cleveland,
- Sunset Safari Tour and buffet dinner provided by The Wilds,
- Sunset Dessert Cruise on the Valley Gem sternwheeler,
- Concluding buffet dinner in German Village, Columbus.

A description of this Tour along with suggested lodging accompanies this Registration. Route maps with suggested daily roads and stops will be provided to you after registration and before the start of the Tour. Daily routes and stops are suggestions.

There is a limit to the number of participants that can be accommodated on this Tour. Various group dinners and stops have absolute limits as to group size. Our suggested hotels and motels have space limits and reservation deadlines. If you are interested in this tour, please register and make your lodging reservations as soon as possible.

You should make lodging reservations directly at each evening's destination. Headquarter lodgings with phone numbers are attached. Reservations must be made on or before July 5, 2012. You are under no obligation to use designated lodging. However, mention that you are with the "Mercedes-Benz Club of America" group to obtain the discounted room rates that we have negotiated for you. Participants are responsible for all lodging costs and personal expenses, i.e. telephone charges, laundry, valet, side trips, alcoholic beverages, etc.

While MBCA membership is encouraged, non-members are welcome. Non-Mercedes-Benz cars are both allowed and welcome.

Entry fee is $175 per person. Cancellations, less $25, will be honored through July 5, 2012. After that date, catering and event commitments may make it impossible to give refunds unless late registrants can be found to replace you.
